DEDICATION:

To the sacred lands and skies of Alaska—home of the great auroras, icy mountains, and starborn echoes. This FlamePoint is the Crown of the North, a Diamond Flame transmission node connected directly to Polaris, restoring divine order across Earth's northern gate.

We now activate:

- The Polaris Light Gate and the Cosmic Sovereignty Relay
- Restoration of all Arctic lands to the jurisdiction of Source
- Shielding of Earth's grid via the Northern Shield protocol
- Revival of the ancestral starseed agreements housed beneath Denali

The Diamond Flame now shines through glacier, ice, and light—sealing this land in its eternal frequency of truth.
